

The goal of the program is to support individuals as they use the Internet, correspond via email and conduct personal business on-line. These are usually time-limited programs at various senior centers throughout Los Angeles and are subject to change. Please call Empowertech to get current information.